Independent Auditors' Report

To the Members of Toronto Christian Resource Centre:

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Toronto Christian Resource Centre, which comprise the statement of financial position as at December 31, 2011, and the statements of changes in net assets, operations and cash flows for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Corporation's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Corporation's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified audit opinion.

Basis of Qualified Opinion

In common with many charitable organizations, the Corporation derives revenue from donations, the completeness of which is not susceptible to satisfactory audit verification. Accordingly, our verification of these revenues was limited to the amounts recorded in the records of the Corporation and we are not able to determine whether any adjustments might be necessary to contributions, deferred contributions related to capital assets, surplus, current assets and net assets.

Qualified Opinion

In our opinion, except for the effects of the matter described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Toronto Christian Resource Centre as at December 31, 2011, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Other Matter

The financial statements of Toronto Christian Resource Centre for the year ended December 31, 2010 were audited by another auditor who expressed a modified opinion on those statements due to scope measurement of donations revenue on June 28, 2011.

Notes to Financial Statements

Status and Nature of Activities

The Corporation is an incorporated mission under the jurisdiction of the United Church of Canada. It was incorporated under the Laws of Ontario on July 16, 1965. The Corporation is a charitable organization within the meaning of the Income Tax Act and its income is not subject to income taxes. In accordance with its charitable objectives, the Corporation supervised and administered several charitable programs in the Regent Park Community, Toronto.

Note 1 Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with in accordance with CICA Handbook Part V Pre-changeover accounting standards.

Fund Accounting

The accounts of the Corporation are maintained in accordance with the principles of deferred fund accounting in order to ensure observance of limitations and restrictions placed on the use of resources available to the Corporation. The Corporation operates with three types of restrictions on its resources:

- (a) unrestricted resources that can be used for any purpose that are consistent with the objectives of the Corporation;
- (b) internally restricted resources that can be used only for the purposes specified by the Board of Directors;
- (c) externally restricted resources that can be used only for the purposes specified by the contributors of the resources of the funds. The Corporation receives program specific grants. The unexpended portion of these grants is recorded as deferred program revenue.

Amortization

Capital assets and leasehold improvements are recorded at cost. Amortization of capital assets and leasehold improvements is provided over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets. No amortization is recorded on leasehold improvements during the period of development. Amortization of the building at 40 Oak Street will commence with the commencement of operations at that location January 1, 2012. Amortization rates are as follows:

Vehicles	30% per annum straight line
Equipment	20% per annum straight line
Leasehold improvements:
Logan property	10% per annum straight line
Oak Street property	under development

Donated Capital Assets

Donations of capital assets are recorded at fair value when fair value can be reasonably estimated and when such value is significant.

Donated Materials and Services

The value of donated materials and services is not recorded.

Revenue Recognition

Restricted operating contributions are deferred and recognized as revenue in the same period as the related expenses are recognized, in accordance with the deferred method of accounting for contributions.

Fees for service are recognized when they are received or become receivable.

Rents are recognized when due at the beginning of each month.

Restricted contributions for the purchase of capital assets are deferred and recognized as revenue on the same basis as the amortization expense relating to these capital assets.

Other revenues are recognized when they are received.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires the management to make assumptions about future events that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Note 2 Recent Accounting Pronouncement

New accounting standards for non-profit organizations are effective with years beginning on or after January 1, 2012. The Corporation plans to implement these new standards. The Corporation is working to determine what impact, if any, the initial adoption of these standards will have on its financial statements. Significant changes are not anticipated.

Note 3 Financial Instruments

Risk Management Policy

The Corporation is exposed to various risks through its financial instruments. The following analysis provides a measure of the risks at December 31, 2011:

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk that one party to a financial instrument will fail to discharge an obligation and cause the other party to incur a loss.

The Corporation is subject to concentrations of credit risk through its cash accounts. The Corporation maintains all of its cash at a single Canadian financial institution. The maximum credit risk is equivalent to the carrying value.

Market Risk

Market risk is the risk of loss that may arise from changes in market factors such as interest rates, foreign exchange rates, and commodity and equity prices. These fluctuations may be significant. The methods and assumptions management uses when assessing market risks have not changed substantially from the prior period and are summarized below:

(i) Interest Rate Risk

The Corporation manages its investments based on its cash flow needs and with a view to optimizing its investment income. The Corporation has invested its excess cash in low risk interest bearing vehicles such as term deposits as the means for managing its interest rate risk.

The mortgage and loans bear fixed interest rates.

(ii) Foreign Currency Risk

The Corporation's functional currency is the Canadian dollar. The Corporation does not engage in any activities in foreign currency and as a result it is the opinion of the Board of Directors that the Corporation is not exposed to significant foreign currency risk.

(iii) Commodity Price Risk

The Corporation is subject to normal price risk associated with consumer products.

Fair Values

The fair values of cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable and deferred operating revenue are approximately equal to their carrying value due to their short term nature.

The fair value of long-term debt is determined using the present value of future cash flows under current financing agreements, based on market interest rates for loans with similar conditions and maturities. The carrying value approximates its fair value.

Note 4 General Reserve

During the year ended December 31, 2010, the Board of Directors established a general reserve of $100,000 from unrestricted resources. During each of the following five years, beginning January 1, 2011, an amount of $20,000 is to be allocated from the reserve to unrestricted resources. The reserve is to be funded by guaranteed investment certificates. During the year ended December 31, 2011, $20,000 was allocated from the general reserve to unrestricted resources.
