

CRC's Building Lives Benefit 2016 featured artist

David Warrack

With over 250 Music Director credits to his name, David Warrack is in demand! Highlights of his illustrious career include the Broadway production of Shenandoah starring John Cullum, the first Canadian run of A Chorus Line, a Dora for the Canadian tour of "Jacques Brel Is Alive and Well, Closer Than Ever", and nine seasons of Ross Petty's Christmas pantomimes here in Toronto!

David is also an accomplished musician and conductor having worked with the Canada Pops Orchestra and the Rose Orchestra in Brampton. From theatre to film to television and radio, David has performed piano solos and as accompanist to a wide variety of Canada's major talents.

David was the Music Director at CRC's 40 Oaks Opening Celebration in April 2012 and at CRC's Building Lives Benefit in October 2014. We are thrilled to reunite David at our event with long-time collaborators Ross Petty and Jackie Richardson for CRC's 2016 Building Lives Benefit!
